

SCOTLAND YARD TO KEEP CLOSE TAB ON ALL UNDESIRABLES

Tightens Up Inspection of All
Sea and Air
Ports

TAKING NO CHANCES

Alien Registration Is A Great
Aid To The Police
In Their Work

By David P. Sentner

LONDON, Dec. 24.—(INS)—Scotland Yard, in cooperation with the Provincial Constabulary and marine authorities, today tightened up inspection at all sea- and airports to keep out suspicious visitors from the United States, and orders went throughout the country to maintain closer surveillance over all persons having known connections with American gangster who are already in Britain.

The "Yard" is "taking no chances," it was stated, although the British press, promptly referring to "this happy, kidnap-free land of England," assures Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh and their son, Jon, that they can expect freedom from molestation from the moment they land from the American Importer at Liverpool Dec. 30.

Metropolitan police officials would not reveal whether they had received any direct request from New York, Trenton, or Washington to keep tab on suspects, but Scotland Yard is ready to work in close cooperation with American police and act on any tips in order to insure complete tranquility for the Lindberghs.

The chief factor in the famous criminal investigation department's protection will be the system under which all resident aliens must register, be photographed, and, if any suspicious circumstances at all are connected with their presence, report regularly to the police.

"It is impossible for an alien to remain in England for more than a week without the police knowing all his business," it was said at the Bow St. aliens' registration office.

The Lindberghs are not expected to debark at Cork, Ireland, the American Importer's first port, but to proceed to Liverpool, where the authorities will easily be able to ensure a comparatively private arrival, and which is within easy distance of South Wales, where it is reported that the family may first go.

CHRISTMAS CHEER TO BE DISPENSED HERE

Baskets of Food, Clothing and Toys To Be Provided
For the Needy

FOR A MERRY DAY

Christmas cheer is to be dispensed in large measure throughout Bristol and lower Bucks County.

Imbued with the Yuletide spirit, individuals, churches, and organization members, are remembering the needy, and are making sure that those who have little of this world's goods will have a happy holiday nevertheless.

Baskets, heaped with fresh and canned fruits and vegetables, bread, butter, fowls and staple goods, are being planned for, each carrying a message of good-will to an unfortunate family. Clothing and toys, as well as sweet-meats, are to be provided in some instances.

The ill and shut-ins will be remembered by members of Mrs. David O. Taylor's Bible class, Bristol M. E. Sunday School. To each patient in the two local hospitals, and likewise to several other ill folks in the borough, will a poinsettia plant be sent on Christmas morn.

There will be delivered by members of Mrs. William Mohr's Sunday School class, Bristol M. E. Church, gifts for children, about 200 to this benefit. These gifts of clothing, including some shoes, stockings, etc., as well as toys and candy, will be distributed on Christmas eve.

A Bible class at St. James P. E. Sunday School, taught by Mrs. Walter Pitkonka, plans to deliver baskets to several families, for the Yuletide. Each basket will contain a complete dinner.

The Epworth League of Hulmeville M. E. Church will distribute toys to several children in that borough.

A Christmas party was planned for this year by the Girl Reserves of Bristol high school. On the 23rd the Reserves had as their guests approximately 200 boys and girls. A program was given in the auditorium for the children's enjoyment. Then they adjourned to the cafeteria for fine refreshments. Later Santa Claus distributed gifts in the auditorium. The Mothers' and Fathers' Associations helped to make the affair possible.

The number of baskets of food to be distributed by the Baptist Young People's Union, First Baptist Church, will approximate seven. Toys will be included for the children.

The Lily Rebekah Lodge has garnered gifts of food, clothing and money, which it will distribute to a number of needy families, thus aiding in making the Yuletide a happy season.

There will be remembered by members of the Women's Bible Class, Bristol Presbyterian Church, a number of unfortunate families. Baskets of food, made up in part by donations taken to the Christmas festival of the Sunday School, will be taken to several homes in the borough; and the ill and shut-ins will be remembered with flowers and baskets of fruit.

To five families the Rohm & Haas Sewing Circle will give two baskets each, one being filled with fruit and vegetables, and the second with canned goods and jellies. These will be distributed today.

Bucks Lodge, 1169, L. O. O. M., states that 40 families are to be cared for with baskets of food. Distribution occurred yesterday, so that the holiday may be provided for in advance.

IS THERE A SANTA CLAUS?

(Originally printed September 21, 1897,
New York Sun)

We take pleasure in answering at once and thus prominently the communication below, expressing at the same time our great gratification that its faithful author is numbered among the friends of The Sun:

"I am eight years old. Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus. Papa says 'If you see it in The Sun it's so.' Please tell me the truth, is there a Santa Claus?"

"VIRGINIA O'HANLON,
"115 West Ninety-fifth Street."

Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's, are little. In this great universe of ours, man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth and knowledge.

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! how dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Vir-ginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders there are unseen and unseeable in the world.

You tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not even the strongest man, not even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernatural beauty and glory beyond. Is it all real? Ah, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus! Thank God! he lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, may, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

LEAPS INTO ICY WATER TO SAVE TWO CHILDREN

Edward Regan, 20, Andalusia,
Nearly Exhausted, But Battles Through

ICE HAD BROKEN

An injured Works Progress Administration employe plunged into ice-filled Poquessing Creek yesterday and saved the lives of two children.

The heroic worker, Edward Regan, 20, was almost exhausted as he fought through swirling ice with the second child.

Regan lives at Andalusia and is employed with the crew engaged in treating trees in Bristol and at present is working on the trees at the Bristol post office.

The youngsters are Horace Fullerton, Jr., 9, and his sister, Helen, 10, who live with their unemployed father on Grant avenue, near State road, Torresdale.

They were playing on the frozen creek when the ice broke under them and the current swept them to the center of the creek and downstream toward the Delaware River. They clung to floating sheets of ice, screaming.

Regan heard their cries from his home on the Bucks county side of the creek, near State road, where he was under treatment for an injury to his right knee, that required seven stitches.

Despite this handicap, he ran to the center of State road bridge and jumped into the creek. Calling to the boy to hang on to the ice, Regan first swam the 25 feet to the Philadelphia side with the girl. Then he returned and rescued the boy.

Dr. John Rafferty, of Grant avenue, treated Regan and the children for exposure.

CAUTIONS AGAINST FIRES DURING THE HOLIDAY SEASON

Chief Hagerman Asks the Cooperation of the Public in Preventing Fires

ALWAYS A DANGER

A List of "Don'ts" Is Given
As Safeguards For Decorations

It is the aim of the Bristol Consolidated Fire Department to prevent fires here during the holiday season and with this idea in mind, Acting Chief Clifford Hagerman asks the co-operation of the public.

"We don't want to have a single fire," says Chief Hagerman. "With the full co-operation of all residents here such a record can be made. It will then prove to be a real Merry Christmas for all. 'Fire is a terrible thing and especially so during the holiday season."

In warning of the danger of holiday fires Chief Hagerman calls attention to the perils of amateur wiring for Christmas celebrations and of possible tragedy as an aftermath.

A list of "don'ts" is given as follows:

For Residences

Don't look for Christmas tree ornaments in the loft, cellar or closets with a lighted candle or matches.
Don't place lighted candles on Christmas trees.
Don't use cotton to represent snow—use asbestos.
Don't permit toys, operated by gasoline, alcohol, or other inflammable liquids, near the Christmas tree.
Don't use celluloid motion picture films in the so-called toy motion picture machines.
Don't forget that Christmas tree becomes dry and more inflammable every day it is in the house.
Don't forget to have a chemical extinguisher or bucket of water handy, as a dry Christmas tree bursts into a quick flame when lighted.

For Churches

Don't permit the use of candles by children who are dressed in flimsy gowns to represent fairies. At least two deaths have been caused in this way by children taking part in Christmas entertainments.

Don't have open flames on the stage.
Don't permit gas jets and electric bulbs to be draped with flimsy material.

Don't turn all the lights in the auditorium out for so-called Christmas stage effects.
Don't permit chairs or people in the aisles at an entertainment.

For Stores

Don't allow rubbish to accumulate. Remove it daily.
Don't use inflammable materials for decorations.
Don't permit laxity by employees in charge of fire regulations.
Don't forget the fire drill.
Don't allow exit doors or passageways to fire towers and fire escapes to be blocked by stock or counters.

CHRISTMAS

(Morrisville Herald, Dec. 19, 1935)

"Glory to God in the Highest and on earth peace, good will toward men."

Long years ago an angel host sang this to simple country folk, the shepherds, on Bethany's hill, to announce the birth of one whom we know as the Prince of Peace.

The world was heart sick and in despair then. He, "The Light of the World," died "to make men holy." The world is sick today; the Christmas spirit gives us heart; we must not despair. More glory to God and there will come more peace and good will among men.

The Prince of Peace never compromised with wrong; he

CHRISTMAS DAY

"And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying: 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace, good will toward men.'"

Good will toward men—toward all men, not to any special sect or nation or race. Peace not for the favored of God alone, but for humankind throughout all the earth.

Christmas is the day of all days that has won the respect of thoughtful people, regardless of color or creed, because it symbolizes what they really believe in—the fundamental brotherhood of humankind. Its meaning has transcended its origin. It is not exclusively a day for Christian celebration. It can be observed wholeheartedly by men of all religions, and of no professed religion, because in its essence it stands for a common human aspiration.

Does it seem that the spirit of peace on earth, good will toward men is being mocked by war and preparations for war?

That is merely an evidence that men have not yet cast out fear of one another. The number of people who desire war is exceedingly small. But the number who would resist an attack on their country, and who wish to have the means of protecting country from attack, is very large, and is easily made fearful.

The existence of this fear is the real reason why disarmament is so hard to accomplish. It accounts for the cynicism that gradually spread over the world after the enthusiastic reception of the Kellogg Pact renouncing war.

Yet we can not lose hope and faith in the annual Christmas message of peace and good will. To do so is to admit that the human race is destined to surrender this earth, as some have predicted it will, to the insects.

And if we look back not more than three or four centuries, we must see that the spirit symbolized by Christmas has made great advances. Mankind is more tolerant, on the whole. There is today a world public opinion such as never existed until comparatively recent times, and all the while it is becoming more influential.

It will be long until peace and good will prevail, no doubt. But in the belief that this day marks another expression of confidence that they shall prevail, and a rekindling of the spirit of human brotherhood, a Merry Christmas to all!

Jury: Twelve people who decide which lawyer won the fight.

It is easy to prevent war. Just give the cheated nations the undeveloped territory they need.

That is, the law protects every citizen until some insulting lawyers get him on the witness stand.

Even by airplane it takes a month to cross the country; two days to travel and twenty-eight to earn the fare.

The Romans made people forget their troubles by staging contests between gladiators instead of murdering trials.

Yet old-timers can remember when the fat sisters looked down on the skinny one because no man would have her.

Cleopatra's nose ---and yours!

If Cleopatra's nose had been a little longer, we are told, the history of the world would probably have been very different . . . such is the power of a lady's face!

In those days, beauty aids were matters of trial and error. Since then science has taught us many things about hair, eyes, teeth, nails, complexion . . . figure. Almost all the things that really count in a woman's appearance she can control, herself. And a self-made beauty, to our way of thinking, has as much to her credit as a self-made industrial leader.

Examine your own complexion today. Could it be better? Is your hair as soft and lustrous, your teeth as white, your eyes as shining as they might be? Have you made the most of every possibility? If the answer must be "not quite," do take the matter in hand . . . this very day.

For every woman deserves to be as lovely as she can. And a hundred advertisements are waiting to show you how! So—read the advertisements in this newspaper — they contain information you should have.

ANDALUSIA-“RECS” PLAY TIE GAME HERE

By Jack Orr

Before the largest crowd of the current season the Triple A of Andalusia battled a strong and favored Bristol Recreation Club to a 6-6 deadlock on Leedom's Field, Sunday.

The game was for the championship of the county and as a stalemate was the result efforts are being made for a return game to be played on New Year's Day at the local high school field. The proceeds of the intended fray will be given to charity.

The game was featured by fights and near-riots and many times during the contest time was taken out to clear the field of the rabid spectators. The crowd was made up of half Rec rooters and another half for the visiting club and every time a penalty was called the crowd ran upon the gridiron to battle the officials. The latter had a job on their hands all afternoon and they handled the difficult situations in a capable manner.

Both clubs scored in the second period. The first canto was featured by an attempt at field goal by Tommy Watts from a difficult angle on the 13 yard mark. His try was wide of the posts. Soon after this the quarter ended.

Aided by the fine open field running of Charlie Schwartz the visiting Green Shirts brought the apple to the Recs 12 yard line. Here Bill Lange broke through the line and scampered over for the score. Schwartz's attempt at conversion was wide. Triple A, 6; Rec., 0.

With the minutes waning in the second period, the Recs started a touchdown drive of their own. After Joe Roe's fine run-back of a Schwartz boot, Joie faded back and tossed a long aerial to brother Eddie and the latter raced over. The pass was good for 42 yards. Watts' try at the extra point was no good.

Both clubs repulsed attacks in the third quarter and time and again an ultimate score seemed certain but the fine lines of both clubs held within their own 10 yard markers.

In the final period with Watts and Roe carrying the ball the homesters brought the pigskin to the Andalusia 18 yard line. Again Tommy Watts faded back to attempt for that precious 3 points. His attempt was again wide of its mark.

The game ended a few minutes later with the Triple A in possession of the ball on their own 25 yard line.

The first downs stood seven to four in favor of the localites although they were abetted by penalties.

Schwartz was the outstanding offensive player for the visitors while Vicker stood out on the defense for the Triple A. Watts and "Sleepy Joe" Roe were the standouts for the homesters offense. Beefy Ed Monaco was again a tower house on the defense.

BELIEVE TWO KILLED

PAULSBORO, N. J., Dec. 24—Two men are believed to have been killed today when a barge loaded with 11,000 barrels of gasoline was reported to have exploded while at anchor in the Delaware River. First reports said the victims were believed to be Captain William Leary, 49, of Philadelphia, and his brother, Duard Leary, 36, of Norfolk, Va.

TREED BY MOOSE.

YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo. — (INS)—A huge moose that stalked them for 30 hours, keeping them in the tree-tops for most of that time, was eluded by Walter Gammill and Robert Beal, national park rangers, when they finally reached the station at the south entrance to Yellowstone National Park. Each time they came down, the moose charged and the rangers shed their skills and scampered up a tree to safety.

"I Hope They Give Me Oats"

"Neigh, Neigh," neighs Greyhound, trotting champion of 1935, as he gazes aghast at his evergreen Christmas tree outside his Longwood, Fla., stall. He thinks the idea is fine but not at all as nourishing as oats.

CHRISTMAS

showed the wrong-doer the way; he would lead them to "green pastures;" he would go to meet them but he died, as a lamb slaughtered, sooner than be crowned with an earthly diadem. His was a work to live eternal in the heavens.

Christ worked to free men's souls. We live alone with our souls, but our souls will not live alone with us. They call us to mingle with others; they make us to be responsible to others; they demand of us to serve others. This is the Christ-like spirit.

Our first duty then is to our neighbors; our community. The spirit of the community is called to mingle with other communities, our State. The spirit of the State makes us responsible to the other states, our nation. The spirit of the nation has a demand made upon it to serve other nations. The nations have not yet accepted the Christ-like spirit.

So "Peace on earth, good will toward men" begins at home.

My message to my fellow citizens in Morrisville, this Yuletide, is an appeal to all that we resolve to accept this call to our souls and to live the next year in peace and amity among ourselves, to make no compromise with wrong but, resolving both in civil and private life, that we shall live with the spirit of unselfish service uppermost in our hearts.

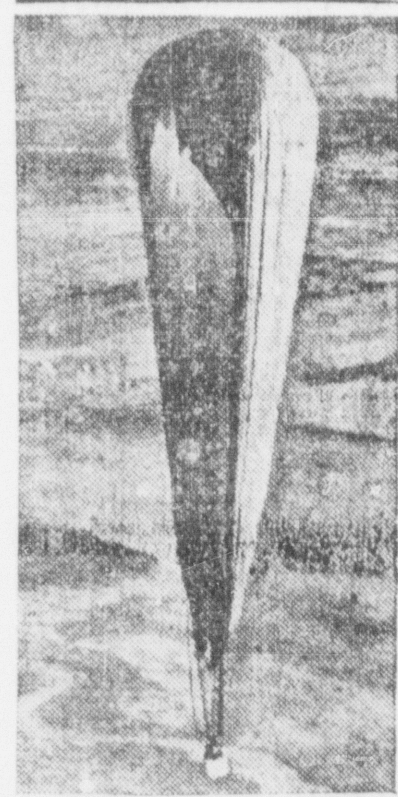

I ask for strength to continue my service to you and I seek your good will to carry on that there may radiate from Morrisville that warmth of spirit, that urge to grow and to serve which shall charge and electrify the hearts of other communities 'till even "nations afar off" may catch its impulse.

A Merry Christmas to you all.

Signed,

Thos. B. Stockham,
Mayor.
